NEW BUSINESS

2. Use of Facilities Application – Boreal Youth Soccer
Commissioner West moved, second by Commissioner Pederson to approve the Use of Facilities Application for Boreal Youth Soccer. Motion carried 4-0.
3. Adopt a Park Program
Chair Tri reviewed the Adopt a Park Program. Commissioners agreed it needs some updating and will review and bring back feedback to the next meeting. Commissioner Pederson requested it be publicized in a future newsletter and Commission Hodel requested it be updated on the website.
4. Work in Progress (WIP)
Chair Tri reviewed the WIP.
5. Parks Commission Discussion Items
Commissioner Hodel noted the trails at Dunlop were recently groomed.

Administrator Wickham updated the Commission on recent feedback the City Council gave Anoka County regarding the trails that are part of the upcoming County Roads 7 & 22 projects.

Administrator Wickham noted the Planning Commission Chair Brad Johnson wanted to look at the Master Parks Trails and Open Space Plan from 2006 with the Commission and noted it might be time to update it.

Administrator Wickham noted its important for the City Council to budget for and fund maintenance of the existing trails in the City before constructing new ones.

ADJOURNMENT

Motion by Chair Tri, second by Commissioner West to adjourn the meeting at 7:55 PM. Motion carried 4-0.

Respectfully Submitted,
Loren Wickham, City Administrator
